Hear from PhD/EngDoc students showcasing their research on Ferrous Metallurgy

The aim of the symposium is to:

- > Allow PhD/EngDoc researchers and university departments from across the UK to showcase their research
- > Inspire academics and research students to engage in the research challenges of the steel industry
- > Enable industry colleagues and academics to form strong and lasting networks

The symposium is open to students, academics and industry and is particularly relevant to students planning to, or currently working on a PhD, as well as university academics, researchers and industries involved in materials, metals and process improvement.
